H.S.R. No. 182

R E S O L U T I O N

WHEREAS, A colleague who is a freshman Member of this House, but who certainly is not a freshman in public service, the Honorable Joe H. Golman of Dallas, is celebrating his 45th birthday anniversary today, March 13, 1969; and

WHEREAS, So outstanding has been the life of this distinguished Member of the House of Representatives from Dallas that his birthday is but a wonderful opportunity for his friends and fellow Members to give public recognition to him and his many good works; and

WHEREAS, Joe Golman is a highly successful Dallas businessman, but sometimes it is difficult to understand how he has found time for his business enterprises in view of his many religious and charitable activities and his dedication to civic betterment; and

WHEREAS, To name just a few of the religious interests so dear to his heart, he is president of the Southern Section of the National Jewish Welfare Board and vice president of the Jewish Welfare Federation; he is a director of the National Jewish Welfare Board, Golden Acres, National Conference of Christians and Jews, Julius Schepps Community Center, Congregation Shearith Israel, and Jewish Welfare Federation; and

WHEREAS, In civic endeavor, he belongs to the State Fair of Texas, the All-Sports Association, North Dallas Chamber of Commerce, Dallas Crime Commission, United Fund, Community Chest Trust Council Advisory Committee, and Leukemia Society of Dallas; he has been a member of the Dallas City Council, by appointment on November 12, 1962, and subsequent election in April, 1963, and reelection in May, 1965; he has been a member of the Zoning Board of Adjustment for Dallas, the Dallas Public Welfare Board, the Executive Board of the Circle 10 Boy Scouts Council, and the Dallas County Community Action Committee, Inc. (War on Poverty); and

WHEREAS, In 1959 he was named "Young Man of the Year" and was recipient of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Distinguished Service Award; the Dallas chapter of B'nai B'rith named him "Mr. Wonderful" in 1966; he is former president of the Julius Schepps Community Center, the Carnation Charity Home for Negro Aged, and Congregation Shearith; and

WHEREAS, During the past legislative interim he served on the Texas Committee on Juvenile Crime and Delinquency by appointment of former Speaker Ben Barnes; he is a member of Hella Temple of the Shrine; and

WHEREAS, Joe was educated in Dallas public schools and attended Southern Methodist University and Texas A&M University, where he majored in sociology and psychology; his wife is the former Frances Goodman, and the Golmans have four children: a daughter, Julie, 19; and sons, John David, 18, Tim, 14, and Josh, 13; and

WHEREAS, Since his election to the Texas House of Representatives last November, Joe's constituents know that he is in Austin, even though the employees of his brokerage business and the Circle T Foods Corporation sometimes wonder what has become of the "boss"; not a letter goes unanswered and this dedicated public servant makes it his policy to "tell it like it is"; he doesn't hedge but explains his stand on each issue, whether or not he agrees with the person writing him; and

WHEREAS, It is a real pleasure to know Joe and his family and to serve in the House of Representatives of the 61st Legislature with him, and this birthday anniversary is just the time to tell him so; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 61st Legislature hereby congratulate Joe Golman as he celebrates his ^{45th} ~~forty-fifth~~ birthday anniversary and his first birthday among his colleagues in the House; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared for Joe in token of the good wishes of his friends and the deep appreciation we feel for his outstanding service.
